Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 12-13, and 15 are allowable

Reasons for Allowance

2. The following is an Examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The closest prior art to Rosen (U.S. Patent No. 5,453,601), teaches an electronic monetary system having an electronic note, an amount or value of the electronic note that represents the amount of the demand deposits held at an Issuing Bank that is backing the electronic note. However, Rosen does not teach or suggest a total amount of fungible precious metal represented by the plurality of electronic data files is less than or equal to the quantity of fungible precious metal stored in the secure facilities taken in combination with a computer program product for use in conjunction with a commodity-based system for conducting financial transactions, the system including at least one deposit site having secure facilities for storage of a quality of fungible precious metal as recited in independent claim 12.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
